
NEW OR RENOVATED BATHROOM

SEASIDE SERENITY | JUDGES' SHOUT OUT

When a Providence couple traded in the city life for a new Narragansett beach house, they needed a lot of storage space in the 3,000-foot-home. That meant taking advantage of every nook and cranny. That's evident in the his-and-hers bathroom, where Kelly Taylor of Kelly Taylor Interior Design crafted an open, modern and highly functional space packed with every luxury: heated floors, lilac-accented Bianco Dolomite marble floors and shower walls, custom Alpine Kitchens cabinets, a soaking tub and dressing table for her and a shared shower that connects both spaces. "It's a great use of space," says Robins. "The dressing table, the choice of tile – it's all very serene."
